

Dear Sirs: Please protect our privacy from invasion by the banks calling us to encourage our purchase of securites or other options that they may be pushing at the moment. I don't appreciate these calls (which I have received) any more than I would a call from the gas station where I have bought gas about a special on windshield wipers or tires etc.

Thank you,
Charles Nydegger